A NEW FIELD THAT WILL COME INTO PROMINENCE

One of the probable effects of the war, so far as it directly affects Edmonton, and one which will be welcome, will be that greater attention will be paid to the mining resources of the country to the north and west of this city.

In times of peace mining, to those resident in a non-mining section such as Edmonton, is usually regarded in the light which Mark Twain gave words for when he said that "a mine is a hole in the ground and the owner is a liar," a mental attitude toward the industry which has been inculcated by the depredations of the wild-cat miners who look to the non-mining section for their easy marks when floating false propositions. As a consequence of this attitude, the mining interests are usually looked upon with considerable skepticism or, for the sake of greater safety, totally ignored by many of an adventurous turn to whom they would make strong appeal were they but better acquainted with the industry.

But in times of war mining appears in a new light. It is a basic industry. Gold mining, most especially, is recognized as an industry which the war does not affect except beneficially. In all the world the gold camps will probably feel the effect of the war least of all, for the reason that their product, next to food, is the one which the world wants most. As a consequence more attention will be turned to the mining industry and there will be a more general recognition of the fact that mining, rather than a hazardous business, is, when conducted upon a business-like and honest basis, one of the safest and most certainly profitable businesses in the world.

Brought tributary to the city of Edmonton by the construction of the new railways now just completed in the mountains is a territory which fifty years ago had world-wide renown for its gold-producing richness. The Cariboo, Cassiar and Omineca countries have turned millions and hundreds of millions of dollars into the treasuries of the world, and this from the crudest methods of mining. There are millions there still, in gravel that is not sufficiently rich for the gum boot miner of the wilderness, but promising a veritable bonanza for the hydraulic and the dredge which closer transportation make possible.

With stocks having become unpopular, real estate dormant and the usual lines of financial venture in times of peace suddenly brought to a standstill, attention must certainly be turned to mining, and this new field tributary to Edmonton has many points of attractiveness which will undoubtedly bring it into prominence.

THE WAR FINISHES WHEN THE MILITARY AUTOCRACY IS SUPPRESSED.

When the time comes for the re-establishment of peace in Europe, which is still in the distant future, it will be remembered against Germany that to make a treaty with the German bureaucracy would be a waste of time and ink.

Germany, previous to the outbreak of this war, had treaties with other nations. The covenant guaranteeing the neutrality of Belgium became an international agreement in 1837, a written treaty in 1870 and a scrap of paper in 1914. The Berlin agreement, which guaranteed the autonomy of Bosnia and Herzegovina, bore the signature of Germany and the Triple Alliance was a distinctively Germanic production.

But when these treaties came to the test Germany ratified the neutrality of Belgium in '70 for the purpose of satisfying Britain and Isolating France, only to violate it now in the hope of securing an advantage over France. When, to promote Teutonic domination in Southern Europe, Austria ignored the Berlin agreement by grabbing the autonomous states, Germany not only absolved Austria in its violation of the agreement which Germany was in honor bound to guarantee, but held the other nations off while the violation was perpetrated. Now, having set out upon a war of aggression, Germany, the nation which invited Italy in on the pretense that it was a defensive alliance, threatens Italy with vengeance if she fails to join with the Teutons in their war of aggression.

The German empire, as at present constituted, is of the same age only as the Dominion of Canada, but in her few years of national existence it has been very clearly proven that the Prussian readiness to violate any agreement constitutes the sum of the morals which govern Germany. Prussian morals consist of the barbaric belief that might is right. This has been the doctrine of the militarist in all the ages, and it is the militarist caste which has dominated Germany. Asquith put it clearly when he declared that the issue in this war is whether the world is to be governed by citizens or soldiers. So long as the soldier government of Germany continues there can be no peace, and a treaty with Germany's military autocracy would be no guarantee of peace whatever. The war finishes when the military autocracy of Germany has been suppressed and its authors hanged or banished from the world's affairs.

LOCAL RELIEF ENTITLED TO SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

In the campaign for the collection of patriotic and relief funds, which commences in Edmonton and vicinity today, it will be well for contributors to keep in mind the fact that contributions are being taken under two heads, one for the patriotic fund and the other for the local relief fund. Contributions to the patriotic fund will go into the national reservoir for such funds and be administered from Ottawa for the maintenance of the families of soldiers who are at the front.
 Contributions to the relief fund will be administered locally for the relief of the families of soldiers and civilian alike who may have been placed in a position of want or jeopardy by the war.

Both are worthy objects, but the organized looking after of soldiers' families, as a consequence of which their welfare is reasonably secure, the fund for local relief calls for special consideration.
 As a consequence of the great unemployment during the last few weeks, there are quite certain to be many families requiring help, other than those of volunteers, this coming winter, and as the patriotic fund is not applicable to their cases the local relief fund is the one out of which whatever help is afforded must be taken.

ADVISES EXHIBIT OF PRODUCTS AT SAN DIEGO FAIR

Coast Journalist Says Many People from Southwest Interested in Alberta.

WILL MAKE CIRCUITOUS TRIP IN NORTH COUNTRY

Party Outfits for Six-Weeks Jaunt up Athabasca and Back by the Peace.

That this city will lose one of the greatest advertising opportunities, and one that was possibly not again present itself in the history of previous times, if it does not see to it that an Edmonton or an Alberta agricultural exhibit is placed at the year-long exposition to be held at San Diego, California, during 1913, is the opinion of William Flayl Coleman, of Seattle, Canadian business manager for the Sunset magazine, now in the city on his way to the Peace River and far north country, with a party of Americans, for the purpose of securing information and data for his magazine and of securing some reliable records of the north.

This is not Mr. Coleman's first visit to Edmonton, he having been here last year in the interests of the Sunset magazine, and since that time a number of the fine stories and illustrations of Edmonton and vicinity have appeared in that well-known Pacific monthly.

Industrial Advertising "Falls".
 Mr. Coleman stated that on his trips through the country, and especially in the states, he had noticed the advertising campaign which was being carried on by the Edmonton industrial department in various publications, relating to the possibilities and attractiveness of this country, and drawing special attention to the Edmonton exhibit which it was supposed to have at the San Diego exposition.

Since the war, however, it has been suggested by city officials that the required expenditure of $5,000 or $6,000 for the exhibit at San Diego would not be granted during these depressive war times and the likelihood of the exhibit being placed seems very un-probable. Mr. Coleman thinks, however, that a very bad mistake for the city to make, in view of the fact that at the lowest estimation, one million people will see the exhibit at San Diego, and the great amount of good advertising and results to be derived from the exhibit is not to be estimated in dollars and cents, but rather in the numbers of settlers who are bound to be attracted to Alberta and the Edmonton district by the display and information.

Favors San Diego Exposition
 "There are scores of well-to-do farmers in the south, who are waiting to be introduced to such an opportunity as the Edmonton district presents," said Mr. Coleman, "and I am sure that as a result of the year's publicity at the San Diego exposition at least 1,000 farmers of the better class would be attracted here." Mr. Coleman favored the San Diego fair as a place for an Alberta exhibit rather than San Francisco, as the immense proportions the "Prisco fair" will take would tend to cause any one exhibit to be overshadowed, but not so with the San Diego fair, where agricultural exhibits of the most unique sort were being emphasized and featured.

Mr. Coleman's party to the north will be well equipped. The party will comprise, besides Mr. Coleman, A. Vi-lette, J. H. Morris, J. Rogers and A.
 Arlensworth of this city, the latter two being moving picture men, and Gar-diner Richardson, representing the "Manly Museum" of New York.
 They are having built in Edmonton a thirty-foot launch, which will be named the "Alberta." This boat is almost completed, and will be given her trial trip to the Saskatchewan river today by the builders.
 It is hoped to secure some rare pictures of life in the north country, as well as several reels of motion pictures. Five canoes will accompany the launch to Athabasca, from where the journey by water will commence, and for 1,800 miles this mode of travel will be used.

Route of Trip Like Circle
 The water trip will take the form of a huge circle. From Athabasca the route will be up the river to Lake Athabasca, then west and south to the Peace river, covering a wide expanse of country, and then directly south to Lake Superior, and back to Athabasca, down Lesser Slave Lake, and down Lesser Slave river to Athabasca, the starting point. The entire water trip is expected to take about six weeks, as the party will travel through at many points in search of big game.
 The feature of Mr. Coleman's article to be written for the Sunset magazine after the trip has been made, will be to turn the spotlight on the Peace River country with its vast wealth of golden opportunities.

WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

HAGERVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th, 1913.
 "I can highly recommend 'Fruit-atives' because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-atives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them.
 Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that every other woman may start taking 'Fruit-a-tives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied that the result will be the same as in my own case."

Mrs. W. N. KELLY
 "Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 25c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. a box. They are sold at a price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

CORRESPONDENCE

EDMONTON VOLUNTEER CORPS IS DESIRABLE

To the Editor of The Capital: With reference to the letter which appeared in the issue of the Journal of the 21st, instant, signed by H. M., in which he quotes from an English paper in an endeavor to show that the "Home Guards" is a movement contrary to the wishes of the authorities. I would be glad if you would publish the letter received from Colonel Cruickshank, the officer commanding this military district. The letter is addressed to one of the committee who has been most active and untiring in organizing the Edmonton volunteer corps.

"Sir,—With reference to your letter of the 1st instant, on the subject marginally noted, I have the honor to inform you that I have been directed to convey the thanks of the department to you for your suggestions, and to state that the same will receive due consideration. I am, however, now mobilized at Valcartier camp have been embarked."

H. M. is in error in two important particulars.
 Firstly: The Edmonton Volunteer corps is a body of civilians who are anxious to learn military drill, so as to be prepared should their services be required. They are neither a military organization nor a police force.

Secondly: So far as being a hindrance to the military authorities, the movement, as shown by the above letter, is one for which those who are engaged in the same have the thanks of the military department of Canada.
 Thanking you for your space,
 Yours truly,
 EDMONTON, September 22, 1914.

SASKATCHEWAN'S INCOME SHOWS INCREASE—HAS SURPLUS OF $552,066

Regina, Sept. 24.—Saskatchewan's bonded indebtedness is twenty million dollars, according to figures submitted to the house yesterday by the Hon.
 George Bell, provincial treasurer, in the course of his budget speech. In addition to the regular estimates, supplementary estimates are being brought down to provide a sum of $750,000 to be devoted to patriotic purposes. Out of this fund will come the money to purchase the 1,500 remounts which the province is donating to the imperial government.

Dealing with the income and expenditures for the year ending April 26, 1914, Mr. Bell expressed the satisfaction of the government at the condition of revenue finances, the total income during the year amounted to $6,248,956, to which must be added $106,345 cash balance carried forward from the previous year, making a grand total in receipts of $6,355,301.
 The total expenditure over the same period was $5,803,235, leaving a surplus of $552,066. Mr. Bell said that the income of the majority of the departments had shown an increase when compared with the figures for the previous year and still larger receipts were being shown since the end of the fiscal year, quoting figures to substantiate his statements.

A PROPHECY

Count Tolstoi's Prophetic Words a Few Hours Before His Death

"This is a revelation of events of a universal character, which must shortly come to pass. Their spiritual outlines are now before my eyes. I see floating upon the surface of the sea of human fate the huge silhouette of a nude woman.
 She is—with her beauty, her poise, her smile, her jewels—a super-Venus. Nations rush madly after her, each of them eager to attract her especially. But she, like an eternal courtesan, flirts with all. In her hair ornaments of diamonds and rubies is engraved her name, 'Commercialism.' As alluring and as bewitching as she seems, much destruction and agony follow in her wake.

"And behold, she has three gigantic arms with three torches of universal corruption in her hand. The first torch represents the flame of war, the second torch bears the flame of bigotry and hypocrisy, and the third torch is that of the law.

"The great conflagration will start about 1912, set by torch of the first arm in the countries of Southeastern Europe. It will develop into a destructive calamity in 1913.
 In that year I see all Europe in flames and bleeding. I hear the lamentations of huge battlefields. But about the year 1915 a strange figure from the North—a new Napoleon—enters the stage of the bloody drama. He is a man of little military training, a writer or journalist, but in his grip most of Europe will remain till 1925.

"The end of the great calamity will mark a new political era for the world. There will be left no empires or kingdoms, but the world will form a federation of the United States of Nations. There will remain only four great giants—the Anglo-Saxons, the Latins, the Slavs and the Mongolians."

SETTLEMENT WILL REACH TO ARCTIC CIRCLE AFTER NEXT WAVE OF IMMIGRATION

Anglican Clergyman, Who Has Made Trans-Atlantic Trip When Liner Stood Dead Still Whole Night, Afraid of Capture by German Cruiser Nearby, and Who Spent 25 Years 2,000 Miles From "Civilization," is Still Another Enthusiast on North—His North, However, Only Starts at Grande Prairie, Which He Calls "Temptation Point."

"All one night when in mid-ocean we had to stand dead still with no light showing, for fear a German liner cruiser would capture or sink us," said Rev. William Spendlove, an Anglican clergyman, who is now rector of Drayton, Ontario, England, and who has arrived here from England on the liner Teutonic, after having an exciting voyage.

While visiting two men living in the city, Rev. Mr. Spendlove is taking the opportunity of renewing some old acquaintances, and was speaking to a couple of old-timers at the Y.M.C.A. last evening, when a Capital reporter dropped in. Previous to coming here, he had been in the Arctic for the greater life, in a peaceful English ship, Mr. Spendlove was one of the best known missionaries among his communion in western Canada. After returning to civilization from the distant parish, in which he spent a quarter of a century, he preached in many of the leading pulpits throughout the west, telling the people about the missionary work he had done. He is doing the same thing while on his present holidays.

"You can't Christianize the Eskimos," said Teutonic, the explorer. But the history of the mission among them refuted that statement. "The whole character of the people has been changed since the advent of the missionary. Naturally the Eskimos are wicked and treacherous, but the fruits of twenty years' successful missionary work among them, appear in the fact that they are sending native Christians as missionaries to the white people of the Eskimo north."

This is the race which Stefansson discovered, and which he is now on his expedition to find more about. His expeditions are now en route to rescue Stefansson, whose party is feared, is stranded somewhere within the Arctic circle.

Thirty-seven years ago I passed through Edmonton on my way to the mission field on the Mackenzie river and up to the Arctic ocean. For twenty-five years I lived and worked among the Indians and Eskimos for 2,000 miles from a settlement.

We used to get our mail once a year, along with the supplies of the Hudson's Bay company. A boat of the company would come to the mouth of the Mackenzie, where a small mission of, course, would be in connection with the fur trade."

Mr. Spendlove was on informal terms with all the leading men of the Hudson's Bay company. The late Lord Selkirk was one of the men who had returned to England, the connection was kept up and Stefansson, invited Mr. Spendlove several times to his London home.

CANADIAN PACIFIC DOES MUCH CONSTRUCTION IN SPITE MONEY DEPRESSION

Winnipeg, Sept. 24.—A statement has just been issued showing the amount of work carried out by the Canadian Pacific railway during the present year throughout the dominion. The statement shows that despite the financial depression, the company has gone ahead freely with its program of construction both east and west.

The following work has been done on extensions in western Canada:

A 30-mile extension from Expanse to a junction with the Weyburn-Stirling branch, which will be completed this fall.

The 78 miles of the branch from Lacombe to Kerrobert, a new extension.

The operation of the Alberta-Central Valley railway, a distance of 112 miles, will be completed this year.

The main line from Swift Current to Bassano, of which 150 miles are completed.

The 78 miles of the branch from Lacombe to Kerrobert, a new extension.

"Temptation Point"

"Oh, that's a great word," exclaimed Mr. Spendlove, enthusiastically, when asked about the physical features of his old missionary parish. "It's the last great word, and I am sure you are hearing a lot of these days about the Grande Prairie country. That is a wonderful land with great possibilities. It is only Temptation Point. When people get to far they want to go on farther to the better country."

"There is a vast tract one million square miles in area, a thousand miles north of the Arctic circle. The church missionary society had missionaries there for many years. We were 1,000 miles apart. Under Bishop Tompkins this area was later divided into three dioceses—Mackenzie River, Athabasca, and Yukon territory. The Eskimos and other Indians number more than 5,000. There are hardly twenty white people in the whole country, but as the area is so vast, it will undoubtedly become one of the greatest and richest parts of the whole dominion."

Resources Little Known

"It is a resource to justify such a 'flax' asked one of his hearers.

"Inquiries" he repeated with emphasis. Very few know the possibilities hidden in that isolated region. In the southern part I have seen many fine wheat and barley crops, you could wish to see it. It will compare with your best No. 1 hard. As far north as the Arctic circle, I have both seen and have myself raised vegetables of almost every description. We have not been able to find more than potatoes, corn, beans, and three or four other ordinary kinds, grow excellently. There is also a great deal of timber, and the third lake in the world, being exceeded only by Victoria, in Africa, and Superior. Great Slave and Great Bear lakes are simply teeming with millions of trout and whitefish. I have caught plenty of trout weighing from 25 to 35 pounds, and three-pound white fish.

PRUSSIAN SITUATION IS DEVELOPING WITH STARTLING RAPIDITY

New York, Sept. 24.—A dispatch from Warsaw to the Herald dated Wednesday says:

"Great attention is being paid to the situation on the Prussian border is developing with startling rapidity. I am compelled to refrain from commenting on its main features, for giving any details, but I am permitted to hint that certain extremely important changes which now have been effected in connection with operations in the immediate neighborhood decide the date for the advance on Berlin."

Belgians Well Received.

Montreal, Sept. 24.—City officials and thousands of citizens last night greeted the Belgian royal commission, which recently presented to President Wilson a protest against German atrocities in Belgium, when it arrived here from London.

GROTESQUELY CLAD SEAMAN CRAVE FOR SUITABLE REVENGE

Survivors of North Sea. Fight Bemoan Fact They Had No Chance to Reply.

YOUNGSTERS TELLS OF EXCITING EXPERIENCE

Casualty in Engineers' Rooms and Stokohelds Thought to Be Heavy.

Harwich, Eng., Sept. 24.—The Great Eastern liner in Harwich which was converted early in the war into an army hospital, is today filled with men from the British navy. Its coats are crowded with survivors of the three British cruisers sunk yesterday in the North sea by German submarines. The bay from the hotel is the regular Stokoheld Naval hospital, where the wounded from these cruisers are being taken. The hotel is being used for those who are suffering from shock and exposure. Many of these men could be seen this morning clad in hospital uniforms to mangled patients.

The admiralty has informed as many relatives as possible of the names of the survivors at Harwich and the relatives arrived early. Among them was the father of the brave midshipman who was buried from each ship in turn as it was struck by German torpedoes. His father, a pathetic smile, broke down into tears.

One survivor, a young soldier, told survivors, the loss of life was heaviest on the Ahnkrig. This vessel was not expected to be attacked and many members of her crew were below. The other two vessels while preparing to aid the Ahnkrig, had brought every available man on deck.

Lifted Clear of Water.

One midshipman, no bigger than a grammar school boy, related that he was on board the Cressy, the last of the cruisers to go down. The three vessels had been scouting, he said. A slight mist over the water obscured the view. Suddenly the Ahnkrig seemed to be overhauled. All hands on the Cressy were called and she stood by to render assistance. The Hogue also came in, arrived first. Just as she was swinging her small bows over the water, she was hit clear of the water. By this time the Ahnkrig had gone down and the water around her was filled with wreckage and swimming men. Just as the Hogue settled back into the water the waters on the Cressy came in a glimpse of a submarine and immediately fired at it. The submarine disappeared, evidently then.

Then in the words of this young midshipman:

"My deck rumbled beneath our feet but the good old tub recovered her balance and would have stayed up if the Cressy had not been torpedoed a second time. She rolled over to slowly which we had plenty of time to jump well clear of the ship before she disappeared beneath the water.

"It was swim for your life. I was picked up by the cruiser Lowestoft. All signs of our flotilla of cruisers had disappeared from the face of the water."

Several survivors in the hotel hospital are naval college students who had not even attained the rank of midshipman.

A lieutenant who was on the Cressy, with him his watch which stopped at 15 minutes past 11. Many of the survivors were in cold water for some time and are suffering severely from the effects of their immersion.

Busy Attending Survivors.

The regular staff of the converted hospital, assisted by volunteer nurses, worked steadily all last night and are still busy attending the survivors. They were caught in the little changes of war and walk about the big hotel corridors make some humorous comments on such other attire.

Much of the reticence is due to the strict orders of the admiralty that the official position of the navy should be kept secret. The three last cruisers are not to talk for publication until a formal report has been made.

Here and there in the hotel some survivor stops in his restless way to the survivors at Harwich and the relatives arrived early.

Surviving officers say that the total number of men saved from the three cruisers must be about (number deleted by censor).

They express the opinion that the casualties in the engineers' room and stokehold must have been terribly heavy.

The cruiser Lowestoft which did remarkable rescue work is today anchored close to the dock where the survivors landed.

GERMANS ARE MAKING A DETERMINED EFFORT TO INVEST ANTWERP

Ghent, Sept. 24.—The German efforts to invest Antwerp appear to have become more strenuous and determined. Their lines extend westward nearly into this city, and their artillery is hard at work on the south bank of the Scheldt, seven miles away. Railway service south of here has been stopped altogether. There is, however, still ground for the hope that this itself will escape a direct attack.

Brussels has been completely cut off and is occupied by a largely reinforced German garrison.

KRUPP GUN WORKS SHOULD BE DESTROYED; NO SUCH FACTORY OF DESOLATION TO BE REVIVED

(From the Western Leader, Edon.)

Those who are familiar with British politics have no need to be told what a Jingo is but some of our readers may not fully understand the term. The origin of the name is found in the couplet:

"We don't want to fight,
But by Jingo if we do!"

It is applied to people who are considered too fond of war or at least talking about it. The suggestion is that this kind of swaggar is the sort of thing to produce war. Those who use the expression about others have obviously the feeling that war should never be thought of much less started.

Now if a boast which starts with the statement "We don't want to fight" is regarded as too provocative it is clear that the average feeling of the nation is opposed to war. The ordinary Englishman would like to see the war impossible. Even boasting about the victories of the past is not fashionable. A subdued satisfaction with the result of the war which ended with Waterloo is more in the line of realization of the terrible sufferings it entailed on the people. Of the Crimean war, the nineteenth century's most illuminating story is told by John Bright, the statesman, was passing the Crimean monument in London and he said, "The war was a crime."

"The A should be taken from the front." The notion that the war was "a crime" has many adherents in England today. The best justification of the war was found in the fact that the conquest of territory was immediately given self-government.

Still, it is the general feelings in Great Britain about war. The Jingo is, it is true, regarded as having an instinctive feeling of interfering. The "Jingo" song was started at the time of the Russo-Turkish war, which was a bitter attitude which maintains the name has of late years had reference to Germany. But the attitude of the Jingo is a false attitude, for it is a term of decision and reproach.

It is clear that indicates that Englishmen did not wish for war with Germany. They did not wish even to talk of it, and only thought of it with a shudder. But Jingoism is a false attitude, for it is a term of decision and reproach.

The peace lovers and war hawks of Britain may be trusted to see that this atrocious beast creates no more disturbances. There is one thing that is important to be done besides pulling the Hobbesian strings from the throat of the Krupp works should be effectually destroyed and guarantees taken that no such factory of desolation be revived.

will come later, and he will see stars otherwise than on his breast.

The ambitious fleet he has spent so much of his country's money on has done nothing but scatter miles in a cowardly fashion. It is made to give comfort to the growing boy and also will give satisfactory wear. They are in lace and button styles, and made of gunmetal and tan calf leathers. Sizes are 5½, Regular $4.00 value. Friday, 8:30 per pair $1.95

Moreover, even on land the British have proved themselves man for man superior fighters. They have not the same numbers suggested yet. But when more Britishers have been killed to cause the nation fully the numbers will be there. There is no uncertainty about the final victory. When the English people are not discussing the actions of kings, but the actions of men, when they go to work they stay with it until they win.

It is true that William Holstendern did not want to fight Britain just at present. But he surely did not build the fleet for the purpose of invading France and Belgium, which adorned him on land. In the light of his disregard of truster and his contempt for the rules of civilized warfare, who will believe that if he had got the easy passage he expected to the coast of Belgium and France he would have left Britain and British shipping undisturbed.

An American has seen the German military automobiles decorated with such titles as "William, Emperor of Europe." That has been the inhuman and criminal design. We shall be surprised if he is Emperor of Germany.

There has been no agreement between Britain, France and Russia that none of them will make peace without the others. It is suggested that France was possibly afraid of the other two leaving her in the lurch. But the danger of that Russia is no quiter, and Britain, while she may be slow to get into the beginning of a fight, is always there at the end.

The peace lovers and war hawks of Britain may be trusted to see that this atrocious beast creates no more disturbances. There is one thing that is important to be done besides pulling the Hobbesian strings from the throat of the Krupp works should be effectually destroyed and guarantees taken that no such factory of desolation be revived.

DR. YOUNG WINS
BILLIARDS FROM
CHARLES IRGENS

Billy Ryle Will Play Match with Dick Gardiner Friday Evening.

Mainly by getting a good start and amassing a count which his opponent could not overcome, Dr. Young defeated Charles Irgens at the Empire hall in the three cushion billiard tournament last night by the score of 30 to 21. Both players made high runs of three and on seven different occasions Dr. Young made runs of two.

On Friday evening there will be a matched game at the Empire billiard hall between Billy Ryle, the local billiard expert and Dick Gardiner, who is on this week's bill at Pantheon. The match will be three cushion caroms, 50 points up. Gardiner is a player well known in Chicago and it is expected that he will give Ryle a hard fight.

ESKIMOS ARE NOT
DISPLAYING MUCH
RUGBY INTEREST

Having Rather Slim Practices
—Citizens Showing Much Enthusiasm for Game.

For some reason unknown there seems to be little enthusiasm in the Eskimo rugby team and it is impossible to get sufficient players out to hold a decent practice. At the last few workouts only about ten were on hand and unless there is a reformation any chance of the Eskimos winning the league championship is pretty slim.

Some of the enthusiasts have been turning out religiously every night but they are beginning to get somewhat discouraged. In fact Deacon White considers it a waste of time to coach unless the attendance picks up.

The Citizens seem to have the right spirit in practice. They go about it as if they intend to accomplish something and it looks as though they will give the other teams a hard run. They are handicapped by their practice ground but take the bumps philosophically.

Jimmy Bull pants the ball in fine shape and Whitelaw is making good at quarter. Blades is handling himself nicely, having played the American game before although this is his first attempt at the Canuck article.

The Civics will hold another practice today at 5 o'clock on the old high school ground.

BY LOSING DOUBLE-HEADER GIANTS ARE PRACTICALLY OUT OF RUNNING

New York is Now Six Games Behind in Pennant Race—Boston Has Even Break With Cincinnati—Claims Lavender of Chicago Used Emery Paper.

Boston, Sept. 24.—An even break was the result of yesterday's double-header, Boston winning the first game 5 to 2, while Cincinnati took the second 3 to 0. The local team now has a lead over New York in the pennant race of six games.

A liner by Smith that was blocked by a boy as it was building into the center field bleachers gave Boston the winning tally in the final inning of the opening contest, the rap going for a home run.

The second game was a pitcher's battle, Lester, formerly of Princeton, having the better of the argument with Davis.

Lost Bet.
New York, Sept. 24.—New York was practically eliminated yesterday from the pennant race, losing a double-header to St. Louis by scores of 2 to 1 and 5 to 0. It was the first time New York lost two games in one day this season. St. Louis climbed to third place in the league standing. In the first game Terroun held St. Louis to three hits, but his wildness beat him. Marquard pitched the second game for New York and suffered his twelfth straight defeat.

Used Emery Powder.
Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—Hume runs sent in seven of Philadelphia's tallies in the game in which the home team defeated Chicago yesterday 9 to 4. All the circuit drives were made off Lavender. Cravath's two homers sent in five runs and Beckey's four base drive scored a runner besides himself. Lavender, pitched well until the third inning, when Manager Paddy claimed the pitcher had rubbed the ball on emery paper and passed the paper to Zimmerman. Umpire Rizer examined the ball in play and then kept it. Rizer will send the ball to President Toner of the National league as evidence.

Mack Wants Johnson.
Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 24.—Because of a chilling rain which fell throughout the forenoon, yesterday's grand circuit races were postponed until today.
